HORRIBLE HANGING.

The Gallows Tells of a Hideous Execution.

A WIFE MURDERER STRUNG UP.

Before the Hanging the Prisoner Attempts Suicide by Shooting Himself Twice with a Revolver, Which It is Believed Was Furnished Him by a Clergyman, Who is Now Locked Up in Jail.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 5.—The history of the gallows tells no more hideous story than that of the execution of Louis Bulling, the St. Joseph wife murderer at Savannah, Mo., yesterday afternoon. Before the execution Bulling attempted suicide by shooting himself in the left breast with a revolver, believed to have been given him by a clergyman, who had been with him for several hours.

Sheriff Barry had set the hour for the execution at 10 o'clock in the morning. When he went to the cell at 6 o'clock to prepare the doomed man for the scaffold, Bulling pleaded so pitifully for an extension of a few hours that the sheriff yielded and gave him until 2 o'clock to live. When 2 o'clock arrived Bulling renewed his supplications to the sheriff and, falling on his knees, pleaded for one hour more. The sheriff granted his request and, removing the guard from the cell door, left the doomed man alone with his spiritual adviser, Rev. August Lavake.

The silence of the jail was broken only by the voice of the priest, when suddenly two shots rang out. The sheriff ran to the cell and found the priest prostrate on the floor, having fainted. At his side lay Bulling, weltering in his own blood, which flowed from wounds in his breast. He had shot himself with a revolver. A hasty examination of Bulling's body showed that one of the bullets had entered the left breast and, glancing from a rib, had passed around his body and came out of his back. The other bullet had only inflicted a slight flesh wound in his left side. He had not lost consciousness, and when the sheriff ordered four deputies to carry him to the scaffold, he cursed and swore at them in a horrible manner.

The deputies dragged the struggling man to the court yard and lifted him upon the gallows. He refused to stand and they placed him upon a chair. As he sat there he presented a revolting spectacle. His hands and face were covered with blood which also stained his shirt, and blood, was streaming through his shoes, whence it had run from the wounds in his breast. He cursed and swore at the deputies, cried and screamed for mercy, and shrieked in terror. The sheriff gave him a large glass of brandy and he swallowed it at one gulp.

Finally he was told to get up and stand upon the drop. He refused, and four deputies held him up while the rope was being adjusted. The black cap was placed over his head, and yelling, screaming and blaspheming, he shot through the opening at exactly 3:21 o'clock. His neck was broken by the fall and he died almost instantly. The Rev. Lavake, who is believed to have provided the murderer with the revolver, was immediately arrested and is now confined in jail. He declines to be interviewed. Bulling's cell was thoroughly searched Thursday night and no weapon was found. The only persons admitted to the cell since that time were a newspaper man, the deputies and the Rev. Lavake.

Mr. Lavake was interviewed by a reporter yesterday evening regarding the attempted suicide. He said he did not give Bulling the revolver, and had no idea where it came from. He was on his knees praying, he said, when Bulling shot himself.

The life of Louis Bulling has been marked by many crimes. According to own confession he has been a desperate character, and for many years he has been haunted by fears of arrest for his many transgressions. He first came under the notice of the officers of the law through his connection with a tragedy at Pittsburg, several years ago, in which two men were killed. He escaped conviction in this case, and was next heard of in this state, when the crime for which he was hanged yesterday was committed.

He deserted his wife in the summer of 1888 and took up with another woman. The abandoned wife sought employment at the Herbert House, in Savannah. For some cause, which has never been explained, Bulling gained access to her room on the night of Jan. 29, 1889, and with an ax almost severed her head from her body, and otherwise mutilated the remains in a horrible manner. For this crime he was tried and sentenced to be hanged on March 6, last. The day before the execution he was respited to April 17, and on the night of the 10th of that month he escaped by cutting his way out of the Savannah jail.

A large reward was offered for his capture. The Pinkerton agency put men on his trail, but their search was unsuccessful. His arrest was finally effected by the Chicago police after a desperate running fire with the murderer and the wounding of Bulling in the arm. At the time, however, the police did not know the man they had in custody. Bulling had been in Chicago for some time under the alias of Lewis May, sometimes going by the name of Dillinger. His identity was discovered the day after his capture, and he was once more placed in his old quarters in the Savannah (Mo.) jail.

On July 8, the night after his arrival at Savannah, he attempted suicide by taking a dose of morphine, which he had by some means managed to conceal about his person. The attempt was unsuccessful, however, and on Aug. 7 he was again sentenced to be hanged, making the third time he has heard the death sentence pronounced upon him.

Last week it was discovered that

Bulling was planning to again break jail and cheat the gallows, but his designs were frustrated by the sheriff.

ONE DROP TOO MUCH

Taken by Frank Danforth Down in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 5.—Frank Danforth, colored, was hanged yesterday. Danforth made a full confession and professed religion. The drop fell at 12:30. He said he felt he was forgiven for his crime.

The crime for which Frank Danforth yesterday suffered the extreme penalty of the law was the murder of his paramour, Lizzie Gray, June 27 last. The story of the crime, as told in Danforth's own words, is as follows: "On Saturday night Lizzie and I went up to Harrisburg just for a walk. Coming back, just after we passed Mr. McKee's store, and was by Dr. Smith's drug store, Frank Bussey called Lizzie. She left me and walked back to McKee's store, where Bussey was, and exchanged a few words with him.

"When she came back I told her that was not right to unjoin arms with me and go back to hear what another man had to say. We had some words about it, and when we got home and was going to bed she started talking about it again. She said Frank Bussey was my master, and I was just keeping her up for him. This made me mad and I slapped her down. She fell on the floor speechless, and I grabbed a razor lying on the table and cut her throat. As soon as I had cut her throat I picked her up off the floor and laid her on the bed, and took a seat in a chair by the window and leaned out.

"Then the woman living next door asked who it was that screamed, and I told her Lizzie had screamed in her sleep. I waited until everything was quiet and that same night I took Lizzie up and threw her in the river. I took her out of the back door and threw her in the river just above those willows on the bank, opposite Diamond Row alley. I don't know whether she sunk or not; it was night and I never stopped to look. I never waded into the water, but just went to the edge and threw her in."

FARM MORTGAGES UNPROFITABLE.

Receiver Appointed for a Company That Loaned Money on Western Lands.

BOSTON, Sept. 5.—The Suffolk Trust company, chartered in 1887 by the Massachusetts legislature, and authorized to do a general banking and mortgage-loan business, have been notified by the savings bank commissioners to pay no more money on the western portion of their business. The western farm loans, located in Kansas, have failed to satisfy their expectations. The company's statement, made in April, shows liabilities and assets of $489,965. The company guaranteed the interest on $560,000 outside of what appears in the statement, and this interest has been promptly paid by the company, not always with funds sent from the west, but out of its own funds. So poor has this western business become that the company has now on hand over $80,000 of foreclosures of western mortgages, $10,000 of tax titles which it has received in legal proceedings, and $16,000 in mortgages which have not been sold, but have remained in the company's assets since first bought. Its capital and surplus are tied up in western securities which, while they have value, cannot be turned into cash. It has $162,000 owing to the depositors, against which the quick assets consist of $150,000 in good commercial paper and some $10,000 in cash. Judge Allen has granted an injunction against the Suffolk Trust company restraining the company from doing business, and appointed John Haskell Butler, of Boston, receiver.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

Dynamite Factory Blown Up—Sixteen Men Killed.

WHITE PIGEON, Mich., Sept. 5.—The dynamite factory of F. A. Reynolds & Company, near this place, exploded Thursday evening. It is estimated that there were about twenty tons of dynamite in the building, which was a three-story brick.

Scarcely a vestige of it remains. Sixteen workmen, mostly Swedes and Norwegians, were completely annihilated, not an atom of them is to be found, and it is impossible to learn their names, as are the company's books, pay rolls, etc., are lost. The loss is estimated at $35,000.

The concussion in White Pigeon was awful and citizens were badly frightened. Goods in stores were thrown from the shelves and houses rocked to and fro. The spire of the German Lutheran church fell with a loud crash, and the walls of several buildings are cracked and damaged.

A New Ocean Freight Line.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 4.—The Baltimore Storage and Lighterage company, of this city, which controls the Atlantic Transport line between Baltimore, Philadelphia and London, are about to establish a line of freight steamers between New York and London. Negotiations have been going on for several months past to secure wharfage and other necessary room, but it is stated by the end of October the steamers will be put on ready for cargo. The Atlantic Transport line is one of the best freight lines running out of this port, and has the finest lot of freight ships to be found. The steamers Mississippi, Michigan, Memphis and Alexander Elder, now running to Baltimore, are the ones most likely to be placed on the new line.

VIENNA, Sept. 5.—The town hall at Somerein, twelve miles from Presburg, has been blown up by gasoline. A no less quantity than 200 kilos of gasoline, used in the manufacture of gas for the illumination of the hall, was stored in the cellar. The explosion completely wrecked the town hall and fatally injured three persons who were in the immediate neighborhood of the building.

ACROSS THE OCEAN.

Laber News from the Eastern Hemisphere.

THE POPE SERIOUSLY ILL.

His Exact Condition Not Made Public But It is Believed That the Time is Rapidly Approaching When the Roman Hierarchy Will Have Need of Another Head—Other Foreign News.

ROME, Sept. 5.—The announcement is made here by the Capitan Fracassa that the pope was on Wednesday attacked by acute visceral derangement. The physicians of the holy father insist that absolute rest is imperatively demanded in his case. The condition of the pope is admitted to be such as to cause much uneasiness in the minds of his medical attendants.

In connection with the announcement made by The Fracassa, it will be remembered that on June last, the world was startled to learn that his holiness, Pope Leo XIII, had been suddenly attacked by illness; that a panic had been created in the Vatican; that an Italian specialist was hurriedly summoned to the ailing pontiff. On that occasion the most strenuous efforts were made by the representative in Rome of the United Press to obtain some authoritative statement as to the actual condition of the pope. All information was then, as yesterday, courtously refused, and the only satisfaction which can now be obtained, is the dry statement that, if it proves necessary, bulletins reporting the condition of the holy father's health will be issued by authority.

While there is no one in Rome now who knows the facts with regard to the actual physical condition of Leo XIII, or, knowing them, will not divulge, there is no mistaking the strength of the impression which has taken hold of the people of the city, and indeed of well-informed officers, the situation is grave in the extreme. It is pointed out that the persistent and insistent agitation of the papal succession, which has recently occupied so much of the attention of the clergy, statesmen, and polemical writers of Europe coming, as it did, in full force immediately after the disability of the pope on July 18, is strong evidence in favor of the theory that those near to the person of the holy father believe that the time to be rapidly approaching when the Roman hierarchy will have need of another head.

Minister Phelps Congratulated.

BERLIN, Sept. 4.—The United States minister, Hon. William Walter Phelps, is receiving many messages of congratulation upon the removal of the embargo placed upon American pork. Mr. Phelps has cabled to Mr. Blaine, the United States secretary of state, at Bar Harbor, Me., informing the latter of the repeal of the decree, adding: "May I, through you, congratulate the president upon the fact that under his auspices a long struggle to secure this right has successfully ended?"

Mr. Phelps managed the negotiations with great skill, but at the last moment, after the German government had fully decided to have the decree signed on Sept. 1, it looked as if there would be another delay through the hesitation of some of the pettiest states. Prussia, Bavaria and Saxony were ready to agree to the removal of the embargo, but two of the small principalities hesitated and threatened to delay all of Mr. Phelps' work. Finally these two hesitating principalities were brought into line and the decree was signed which admits American pork into every part of Germany.

Flooding to the Frontier.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—A Vienna dispatch says that the Russian villages near the Russo-Austrian frontier are thronged with soldiers. The frontier guards, who used to be merely gendarmes to prevent smuggling, have given place to whole regiments, permanently quartered at every available point, and ready to act as a strong advance guard in pouring into the Austrian empire, in the event of war. Observation towers are being built close to the frontier, and the Russians are also planning the erection of three or four large forts, to form bases for an invading army.

The Russians are also constructing pontoons at Reni that can be used in crossing the Danube. Some of the pontoons are ninety-six feet long and eighteen feet wide, and others 150 feet long. They are forwarded as rapidly as possible to the various places where the pontoons might be required.

A Cruel Hoax.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—What turns out to have been a cruel and utterly unfounded sensational story was circulated by a news agency Thursday. The "news" referred to was contained in a dispatch dated Paris, and was to the effect that a train loaded with troops bound for the French army maneuvers had run off the rails and over an embankment at Culmont de Chalindrey and that 200 persons were killed. The report circulated as to the Culmont accident has been thoroughly investigated and turns out to be completely false.

Paris Visited by a Storm.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—Yesterday afternoon Paris was visited by a storm of extraordinary violence, the sky becoming suddenly so dark that it was found necessary to light the electric lamps in the streets. The wind blew a gale and the rain fell in torrents. During the course of the storm two men lost their footing and falling into the mouth of the sewer were drowned before help could be obtained.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 5.—It is understood that the dismissal of the Turkish ministry was due to their failure to suppress brigandage. Germany and France have been pressing the porte for indemnity for outrage upon their subjects by outlaws.

DIDN'T GET A CENT.

Train Robbers Filled—Detective Fatally Wounded in a Skirmish.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The Los Angeles express was held up by two masked men a few miles south of Modesto at 8:45 Thursday night. The robbers boarded the train at Ceres and compelled Engineer Neff and Fireman Wallace to extinguish the headlight and fill the boiler with water. They then made them get down and go to the express car and order it opened. Conductor Roche and Brakeman Fox were in the front car, and they at once went out on the platform and looked out of the east side of the car. At sight of the conductor's lantern one of the robbers called out for them to go back, firing a shot at them. The conductor set his lantern back and fired two shots at the robbers.

The conductor at once went back into the car and sought Detective Len Harris, of Los Angeles, and Detective Lawson, who chanced to be on the train. Harris got out of the car on the west side and walked up toward where the robbers, who had gone over to that side of the express car, were. When about two cars' length from the express car Harris opened fire with a revolver, sending two shots in their direction. The robbers returned the fire, firing three shots, all of which took effect, hitting Harris in the neck and over the left eye. Meanwhile the robbers were compelling Engineer Neff to hold a torch while Fireman Wallace worked at the door.

They called several times to Express Messenger Reed and his assistant, Charles, to open the door and come out, claiming that they would not hurt them, but they refused to open the door. A bomb was exploded against the door, shattering the beams and making an opening large enough for them to enter through, but the shooting by Harris and also shots fired during the affray by the brakemen, evidently scared them off, as they left without securing any treasure. Harris was taken to Merced, where he is dying.

As soon as the news of the attempted robbery reached Merced a special train started for the scene bearing officers and a posse of sixty men, who are now in pursuit. Officers have also started from Tulara, Modesto, Merced and Lathrop.

WHY RONK WAS RILED.

He Puts Up for the Wedding Trip of the Girl Who Jilted Him.

AKRON, O., Sept. 5.—The young wife of Daniel McCormack, a down town saloon keeper, was brought before Squire Hoffman yesterday on charge of obtaining money under false pretences. She was married to McCormack only a short time ago. John E. Ronk now comes to the front and alleges that the present Mrs. McCormack made love to him last winter and repeatedly promised to marry him. On the strength of these promises she got him to let her have money at various times, until he had loaned her $250. He now says that she "artfully and falsely" wrought on his affections for the purpose of cheating him. What galls Ronk most is that McCormack and his bride took a wedding trip on some of the cash the latter had wooed from the jilted man.

ALLEGED BIGAMIST ARRESTED.

He is Accused of Having One Wife in Ohio and Another in Indiana.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 5.—A year ago J. G. Bridgett came from Cincinnati to Anderson and was given employment in the American straw board works here. Six months later he agreed to marry Miss Mollie Miller, an estimable young lady, and the evening for the wedding was fixed. The bride was prepared for the nuptial ceremony, but when the hour came the bridegroom was missing. It was subsequently learned that he had gone to Cincinnati. Six weeks ago he returned and he and Miss Miller were married. Yesterday she learned that Bridgett had a wife living in Cincinnati at the time he married her, and she at once telegraphed to that city and had him arrested. Policeman Daugherty has left for there to bring the alleged bigamist to Anderson for trial.

Soldier Resisting Arrest.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 5.—A soldier at the barracks was looking at a gold watch supposed to belong to Joseph Kinzy, another soldier. The man was satisfied that the watch was the one stolen from Savage's jewelry store on Monday, and refused to give it up. Kinzy was put under arrest for being implicated in the robbery, and was being conducted to the guard house when he broke away. Two loads of buckshot were fired at the fleeing soldier, both taking effect in various parts of his body. One shot went through his left lung, and several lodged in his legs.

Trench Diggers on a Strike.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 5.—Yesterday seventy-five men employed in digging trenches for water mains extensions went on a strike for an increase in wages from $1.35 to $1.50 per day. Last night a meeting was held in the probate court room, at which the greater number of the 200 men employed in digging trenches for the sewer system were present. These men receive $1.50 per day, and a "Trench Diggers' union" was organized. Unless the water main men are paid $1.50 per day there will be a general strike among trench diggers. Public sympathy is with the strikers.

Forest Fire.

HOT SPRINGS, Wash., Sept. 5.—A terrible forest fire is raging in the Cascade mountains near here. It extends a distance of twenty-five miles and for three days has been fanned by a strong wind. The hotel buildings and cottages are endangered by the flying sparks.

Bridge Works Burned.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 5.—The Youngstown bridge works were entirely destroyed by fire last night. Loss, $75,000; insurance, $55,000. They will be rebuilt at once.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1891.

DID the editor of the Covington Post get left in the grand free-for-all shuffle for a position under Governor Brown?

THE Kentucky Journal, of Newport, is to be congratulated on securing the services of L. J. Blakely, late editor of the Covington Commonwealth.

VERY many of the newspapers of Kentucky agree with the BULLETIN that there is excellent gubernatorial timber in Hon. George Washington, of Newport.

FUEL gas stock is almost "out of sight." A gentleman was trying to secure options on some of it this morning at five to one, but didn't succeed. It is the principal topic of conversation in business circles.

THE run on some of Louisville's banks in the past few days is not at all surprising. So many of her people have been robbed of their hard-earned deposits in the past year that confidence in any of her banking institutions is easily shaken.

GOVERNOR BROWN has made very poor selections for the important offices he has filled since he entered upon his duties, judging from the opinion of the Covington Post. But the Post is very poor authority on such matters. Its editor rants and rails very much like a disappointed office-seeker.

IN this age of keen competition a man must advertise and advertise wisely. He must give the same attention to his advertising as he does to his stock and store. An advertisement forms an impression on the mind of the reader, and it means a great deal to the advertiser that that impression be a favorable one, and that it be fully sustained in the establishment. —Exchange.

GROVER CLEVELAND is solid with the Democracy of the Keystone State. The mention of his name in their convention Thursday was greeted with "tremendous applause." Here is part of what the chairman of the convention said: "His defeat in the last campaign has been more glorious to him than any victory would have been, for no thinking man can help feeling that the lessons taught in the Democratic victories all over the country since his defeat are tributes to the grandeur of Grover Cleveland and the principle he so nobly represents."

Age of Hustle.

"The fall trade, from all indications, promises to be the largest and most profitable for many years," says the Cincinnati Enquirer. "Not only are the crops bountiful all over the land, but already in view is a ready, waiting market for the great yield. This means plenty of money in the hands of the customer. It is a grand combination of good prices and abundance of products."

"But enterprise is necessary on the part of the merchant. He must attract the buyer, point out the advantages of his market, and overcome the blandishments of other competitors. It is a rich harvest, and the wise man will reap it."

"He who waits for the customer to hunt him out will get left. Get in the swim and try to make more noise than anybody else. Don't be a dumb, dreamy sluggard. Shout your loudest on every occasion. Tell people what you have got. This is the age of hustle."

Getting Real Serious.

Editor Bulletin: It is worse than we supposed, and really grows serious. The situation is sufficiently grave when the Government's ready cash at Washington has, under Republican mismanagement, dwindled from unwieldy millions to a few sickly thousands. Shrewd financiers, however, a little successful "shinning" should, and doubtless will, tide Uncle Samuel over till the Democratic succession comes to his rescue in the, luckily, early future. But, when this stringency extends to remote and minor branches of the public service, and worthy officials are actually put upon their mettle, forced to strain individuals in order to maintain public credit, it becomes a matter of personal concern to every citizen. In the instance to which, in our absolute devotion to a common Government, we will only remotely allude, we confess that our natural indignation towards a mismanaged administration is tempered somewhat by admiration for the heroic sacrifice of the local official in the case. There is presence of mind, and much genuine grit, in seizing some loose collateral, rushing around a corner and "realizing" at whatever cost of sweat or complexion, in order to meet a departmental demand for $15!

All the same, we insist upon it, that a Government which is paternal or nothing, either has no proper idea of the relation and the responsibilities thereof, or is wantonly profligate in its handling of the family estate, to thus imperil its own financial existence, and in a supreme emergency thrust the burden upon its willing but helpless offspring. It is weak and cowardly, for individuals just like the Government sometimes don't have $15!

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

The Origin of Decca's Name.

Few singers of any age have been as popular and as near and dear to the hearts of the people as Mile. Decca. She bears many testimonials of this fact in the shape of substantial presents, but perhaps the most striking and unique one is a beautiful brooch. This was given her by admiring Americans in Paris at the outset of her great career. The design of the brooch is a music staff of gold, the notes of which are five large diamonds spelling the name "Decca," according to musical notation. The programme of next Friday's concert will have a representation of this musical staff as a sort of souvenir of the occasion.

The origin of Mile. Decca's nom de theatre has a touch of pathos to it. During her early days in Kentucky the songstress was known as "Mallie" Johnston. When she went abroad to enter upon her great career, Colonel Mapleson, the veteran manager of Her Majesty's Opera Company, suggested that she have a stage name. While searching for a suggestive nom de theatre a cablegram came to Miss Johnston, announcing the death of Professor Everest, her tutor before she went to Europe, and who had written the first song ever dedicated to her. The news of his death brought back old memories. She got the old song and in humming it over, noticed that the first five notes were d, e, c, c, a, which she immediately adopted as her stage name, and this name of Decca not only signifies Miss Johnston's betrothal to her profession, but is also the synonym for one of the greatest lyrical sopranos that the American stage has yet produced.

A Strong Play is "Cleopatra."

The dramatic critic of the Louisville Courier-Journal speaks of "Cleopatra" in the following complimentary terms: "Miss Prescott's adaption of Haggard's novel has resulted in a strong, richly-colored play. The subject is treated from a new standpoint, and while the prevalent idea concerning the Egyptian sorceress is preserved, the setting is striking and original. There is a splendid opportunity afforded the actors and the working out of the narrative enthralls the interest of the spectator from first to last. Miss Prescott's 'Cleopatra' was an emphatic success. She identified herself with the character of the voluptuous, fickle queen in such a manner as made the catastrophe seem natural and inevitable. Mr. MacLean played 'Harmachis,' the young Egyptian prince and prophet with an effect. He realized the pathos, the despair and the noble wrath of the young lover who was cast aside by the inconstant queen, and in the closing scenes exhibited fine feelings and great power. The new play may be pronounced a success in a gratifying degree."

Mr. MacLean and Miss Prescott will present the play at the opera house next Monday night. Seats can be reserved at Nelson's.

Railway News.

In 1890 the railroads of the country hauled 701,000,000 tons of freight, or 1,402,000,000,000 pounds. This immensity is almost past conception. There is probably not sufficient horse-power in the world—that is living flesh-and-blood horse power—to have moved this stupendous weight the millions of miles it was carried.

In the month of July there were 169 accidents on American railways, in which ninety-two persons were killed and 212 injured. The Railroad Gazette says that in but one month since it has kept this record have the fatalities been so numerous—August, 1887, when the Chatsworth disaster occurred on the Toledo, Peoria and Western road.

Prominent railroad officials say that the crops this year are heavy enough to keep the roads busy for the next two years, even if the crops of 1892 should be light. Added to this are the large earnings which the roads will derive from the Columbian Exposition. The outlook for the roads is more promising than at any other period in the past ten years.

President Ingalls, of the Big Four, who has been in England for some time, will arrive in Cincinnati early next week. The New York Commercial advertiser of last Sunday says he has a contract in his pocket with President Barnard, of the O. and M., whereby the C. and O. will have control of the O. and M. Nothing is known of the deal in Cincinnati, and nothing will be known until Mr. Ingalls arrives in New York.

Turf Topics.

Sam Davis, of Rectorville, has bought a fine Alcantre colt from J. B. Ryan of Augusta. The price paid was $250, and Sam thinks he got a big bargain.

Fitzgerald & Co.'s fine stallion Egalite trotted a half mile a few days since in the remarkably fast time of 1:05. He hasn't started in a race this season, and has had very little training.

P. P. Parish, of Midway, has a phenomenal two-year-old filly in skillful, by Onward. She was given a mile heat on the track at Woodburn Farm a few days since, and went the distance in 2:27½ and that, too, without making a single break, and with but little training.

Mrs. Blakely and children, of Covington, and Mrs. Judge Boude, of Augusta, are guests of Mrs. T. Tyler and will spend a week with relatives here.

Mrs. Dr. Reed, of Maysville, with Mrs. Judge Johnson and Miss Mallie Johnson, of Washington City, were the guests of Mrs. T. M. Dora on Friday.

Quite a number of good citizens visited the Queen City to see the "Last Days of Pompeii," and so far as we have heard are disappointed. By the way, had you not better tell people how to pronounce the name of that defunct city and give them a history of the same?

The Tree of Knowledge.

The Bible contains 3,596,480 letters 310,507 words, 31,175 verses, 1,189 chapters, and 66 books. The longest chapter is the 119th Psalm; the shortest and middle chapter the 117th Psalm. The middle verse is the 8th of the 18th Psalm. The longest name is in the 8th chapter of Isaiah. The word "and" occurs 46,627 times; the word "Lord" 1,835 times. The 37th chapter of John, in the 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra is the alphabet. The finest piece of reading is the 26th chapter of Acts. The name of God is not mentioned in the book of Esther. It contains knowledge, wisdom, holiness and love.

A Minister's Opinion.

Mr. Jacob Connor, a German Baptist minister at Royer's Ford, Montgomery County, Pa., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for diarrhoea, colic and cramp in the stomach. I have never used any medicine with better or more satisfactory results. I consider it one of the best ever used in our family. For sale by Power & Reynolds."

THE SALTER FUTURITY.

The Maysville Fair Association Offers a Big Purse for Foals of '92, to be Trotted in '94.

Says the Kentucky Stock Farm, of Lexington: "Mr. James W. Fitzgerald, the enterprising manager of the Maysville track and Secretary of the association at that place, believing that the secret of success in the management of a trotting meeting is to make the stakes and purses large and the entrance fee small, in accordance with the views urged upon its readers by the Stock Farm, has determined to offer a very liberal futurity purse for foals of 1892, which is to be a stallion representative purse. Mr. Fitzgerald has been very much encouraged in this idea by the splendid success of the Lexington association, and C. W. Williams' great meeting at Independence. The Maysville purse will be called the "Salter Futurity, and will be trotted at Maysville at the annual meeting the third week in August, for a purse of $7,777, and its conditions are as follows:

"For colts, fillies and geldings (the get of stallions that may be nominated), to trot as two-year-olds at summer meeting in 1894, mile heats, two in three, distance 150 yards. Stallions to be nominated February 1, 1892. A stallion, even if dead, who may have produce is eligible; $25 to nominate. Every foal of 1892 sired by stallions nominated is eligible, but foals must be nominated November 15, 1892, $5; second payment on foals November 15, 1893, $10; third payment on foals May 1, 1894, $25; fourth payment on foals 7 o'clock night before race, $100; $5,000 to winner, $1,500 to second, $500 to third, $277 to fourth; $500 to nominator of stallion sire of winner of first money."

Here and There.

Mrs. L. V. Davis left for New York this morning.

Mrs. W. H. Sauvary and daughter, Miss Mamie, are visiting friends at Dayton, O.

Miss Anna Frank is at home after spending the summer with relatives at Owenton.

Miss Nellie E. O'Mara is the guest of Miss Sadie Hickey, of "Pleasant Hill," near Bernard.

Mrs. R. F. Means left yesterday to spend a week or so with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall, of Covington.

Miss Millie Robinson, of Charleston Bottom, is spending a few days with Miss Sudie McNutt, of West Third street.

Miss Hattie Hamilton and Miss Stella Charles were in Cincinnati Wednesday and Thursday to see the "Last Days of Pompeii."

Rev. Dr. E. Forman, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this county, his old home, left to-day for his home in New Orleans.

Miss Katharine Noyes, of Charleston, W. Va., returned home to-day. She has been the guest of Misses Lena and Emma Means for a few weeks.

Mr. John Caldwell and family, who have been visiting relatives in this and Bath counties, left for their home in Saline County, Mo., Thursday.

Miss Katie S. Niland has returned from Cincinnati where she attended the fall millinery openings this week, and secured an elegant line of goods. Her stock embraces the very latest styles. The ladies are cordially invited to call on her when wanting anything in the millinery line.

For the Farmer.

The Times-Democrat says a full crop of wheat will likely be sown in Fleming County this fall.

Nicholas County has the finest prospects for a big corn and tobacco crop she has ever experienced.

The New York Sun figures out that the world's crop of wheat and rye this year will be 2,916,000,000 bushels, while the world's demand is 3,535,000,000, showing a deficiency of 620,000,000 bushels.

SERVICES at the M. E. Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D., pastor. Subject for the morning: "The Gospel Rainbow." Sunday school at 9:30. Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. All cordially invited.

It is not often that home-grown figs are found on sale in Maysville, but W. C. Richeson, the grocer, had a lot of them this morning. They were grown by Richard Fristoe, of the East End, and were pronounced very good by a competent judge. Mr. Richeson favored the BULLETIN with about a dozen of them.

THE box sheet for Mlle. Decca's big concert will be open on Tuesday, Sept. 8th, at 9 a. m. (city time) at Nelson's. Inasmuch as there will be a rush from all over the county, Maysville people would do well to secure their reserved seats as early as possible. Manager Chrisman says the price will be 75 cents and $1.00.

DANIEL M. DAVIS was tried yesterday before Squire Grant on a warrant charging him with rape. The charge was preferred by Lucinda Lacey. The evidence disclosed the fact that the woman was about as guilty as the man and the warrant was dismissed. The offense was committed August 25th, but the warrant was not sworn out until one day this week. The parties live on Bull Creek.

NEGRO SHOT AT MAYSICK.

Jim Davis was shot and it is thought probably fatally wounded at Mayslick some time last night.

The particulars have not all been learned, but it appears that Elijah Jones and George Brown became involved in a quarrel. Jones finally pulled his pistol and fired at his opponent. Davis happened to be in range and the ball struck him under one of his eyes. He was still alive this morning, but it is thought the wound will prove fatal.

The parties are all colored. Jones escaped and had not been captured at last accounts. It is thought he has gone to Millersburg, and a telegram was sent to the Marshal of that place this morning to arrest him.

MR. S. B. WADSWORTH arrived home Thursday after an absence of a year or two. During his absence he says he has seen a good deal of the world. He is in good health and looking well.

THE venerable Rev. Hiram Baker, father of Mrs. David Wood, is in a critical condition at his home in Minerva. He is about ninety years of age, and is, perhaps, the oldest Methodist minister in Kentucky.

"IS THE Faith Cure Fact or Fancy?" will be the subject of the sermon at the Christian Church to-morrow night, at 7:30 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. C. S. Lucas. Baptism after the sermon. Preaching also at 11 a. m. All invited.

LAYING corner stone of new Oddfellows' Temple at Cincinnati September 12th. For the above occasion the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets from Maysville at $1.50. Tickets on sale September 11th and 12th. Limit expires September 13th.

MYRA JOHNSON, colored, was bitten in several places by a dog Thursday afternoon while she was at work at Mr. James Hendrixson's home on Forest avenue. The animal was a stray one and was passing through the yard. It was not killed.

WE won't give names now, but several Maysville couples will plight their troth at the hymeneal altar this fall. When looking for wedding presents you can always find something very elegant in Ballenger's stock of jewelry and solid silver ware.

HAUCKE'S REED AND BRASS BAND will go to Portsmouth to-morrow evening to participate in the big Labor Day parade Monday. There will be six bands, but the Maysville musicians have been assigned the position of honor. They will lead the procession.

GOVERNOR BROWN has appointed Frank Buckner Richardson, of Christian County, Assistant Adjutant General, to succeed Colonel S. Anderson, resigned. Charles A. Caldwell, of Henderson, has been appointed watchman of the State House Square to succeed Captain Robert Allen, resigned.

THE usual services will be held to-morrow at the Church of the Nativity at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., the rector officiating. The Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 11 o'clock service. The rector's sermon in the morning will have reference to the fourth anniversary of his taking charge of the parish.

DIPHTHERIA is prevailing to an alarming extent in the neighborhood of Vanceburg. On Town Branch, about two miles back of the place, about twenty cases are reported, mostly of a malignant type. Several deaths have occurred. Four coffins went out of Vanceburg to that neighborhood in one day this week. The town is quarantined against the infected neighborhood.

NOW THAT the elections and fair, racing, &c., are over, and the wheat and tobacco is being handled generally, Frank Owens Hardware Co. are bringing to the front for sale hunting coats (canvass and leather), bird bags, loaded shells, ammunition of all kinds, and sportsmen's wear generally. Call and equip yourself in full for the winter's sport. Prices will suit the purchaser.

THE next district convention of the Sunday schools of the Christian Church of Mason, Fleming, Lewis, Bracken and Robertson counties will be held at Mayslick, Aug. 29th, 30th and 31st, 1892. At the convention in Augusta this week, Rev. W. A. Morrison, of Nepton, was chosen President, Rev. F. M. Tinder, of Mayslick, Secretary and Rev. W. D. Rice, of Augusta, Chairman.

THE city of Maysville will be within twenty days the best known city in America. The recent fuel gas invention will create more excitement throughout the country than all the oil and gas wells put together. Frank Owens Hardware Company have just received, clean and fresh, their vast stock of guns, imported direct from foreign makers, breech-loaders and muzzle-loading; also American makes, all of which they will sell very low.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Secretary Foster Issues a Very Important Statement.

OUR MONEY IN CIRCULATION.

The Different Amounts and the Per Capita During the Past Thirty Years. Other Dispatches from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Secretary Foster, in response to many inquiries from different sections of the country, has prepared a statement showing the amounts of various kinds of money in circulation in the United States during the past thirty years. Tables accompanying the statement show the amounts of money in the United States in the treasury and the amount per capita in circulation from 1860 to 1891 inclusive.

The amount in circulation at the dates specified and the per capita circulation is shown in the subjoined table:

Year.	Amount in circulation.	Per capita.

To Whom the Farmers Are Thankful.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Secretary Rusk, in a letter to Hon. W. H. Hatch, of Missouri, informing him of the removal of the prohibition of American pork by Germany, says the thanks of the farmers of this country are due to Mr. Hatch for his efforts in their behalf, and especially because of his advocacy before the house of representatives of the meat inspection bill without which the removal of the prohibition could not have been obtained.

The state department has not been informed of the withdrawal of Germany's edict. The department officials consider it somewhat strange that the German government, through its embassy in Washington, should have informed the agricultural department of the removal and not have sent the news to the state department.

Doings at the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The treasury department yesterday purchased 878,000 ounces of silver at 982 to 982.5 per ounce. The offers were 1,494,000 ounces.

A $5 conscription contribution from Bloomington, Ill., was received by Treasurer Nebeker yesterday.

The corporate existence of the Wellsburg national bank, of Wellsburg, W. Va., was yesterday extended until Sept. 5, 1891.

The First National bank, of Breckinridge, Minn., has asked for authority to establish a National bank.

The Oklahoma Lands.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Secretary Noble will leave Washington Monday for Cape May Point, where he will have a conference with the president in regard to opening lands in Oklahoma Territory and other important matters connected with the interior department which requires the views of the president.

The secretary said yesterday that a commission of examiners would soon be appointed to visit the northwest and appraise the lumber in the large pine trees on the White Earth Indian reservation.

Fred Douglass' Successor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Jay S. Durham, who was yesterday appointed to succeed Fred Douglass as minister to Hayti, is a native of Philadelphia, where he was born thirty-one years ago. Mr. Durham is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and is a journalist by profession, having been connected with the Philadelphia Bulletin for a number of years, or until his appointment as consul to San Domingo a year ago.

House Letter Boxes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The commission which was recently in session at the postoffice department examining models of house letter boxes has made its report, recommending the adoption of two different kinds of boxes. Postmaster General Wauamaker has been considering the report and the models for some time, and will in a few days decide which of the two is acceptable to the government.

Nothing New From Chili.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—There are no new official facts to be obtained at the state department in regard to the Chilean situation. Mr. Egan has sent nothing more, and there is a total lack of information in regard to the report from London that Balmaceda had had a quarrel with Egan, and had threatened to send him on board a British man-of-war.

Movement of Cotton.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The movement in cotton has begun, and during the past few days the treasury department has sent about $1,000,000 to New Orleans through exchange on New York for that account. The movement is later than last year and the demand for money not so large.

BAHAMA WRECKERS.

The British Government May Be Called Upon to Pay Damages.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—There is a strong possibility that the British government will be called upon to make good the damage done to a portion of the valuable cargo of the steamship El Dorado of the Morgan line, which met with disaster recently in the Bahamas, by the wreckers of the Bahamas islands.

These wreckers, who are little better than pirates, swarmed over the El Dorado as she lay helpless on one of the Bahama shoals, tried to haul down the American flag which flew at her mast head, and were with difficulty restrained from taking forcible possession of her.

The only means of saving the ship and cargo from them was to give them permission to break out a portion of the cargo and load it on their schooners. After they had removed a good deal of the merchandise they refused to deliver it on board the steamship New York or at the port of Bimini, and Captain Byrne, of the El Dorado was obliged to take their word that they would land it at Nassau. The character of the wreckers is a pretty safe guarantee that much of the cargo which perforce was intrusted to their care will not be accounted for.

At this time of the year communication between Nassau and this port is necessarily slow, and the Southern Pacific company, which operates the Morgan line, is unable to determine as yet the loss it has sustained at the wreckers' hands.

Mr. Charles H. Tweed, the company's counsel, told a reporter that he had employed counsel in Nassau to look after the company's interests, but he had not received advice from him as yet relating to the matter.

The wreckers claim the protection of the British flag, and it is asserted by many that the British government ought to be responsible for their treatment of the crews and vessels of other countries that meet with misfortune in Bahama waters.

Two New Mississippi Feeders.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 5.—Letters just received here from geographical students and experts of the Glazier expedition, state that the party has discovered two tributaries to Elk lake at the headwaters of the Mississippi, which are not laid down on any map, and which have obviously escaped the eye of previous explorers. The expedition is now located at Camp Trost, on the shore of the Elk lake, and surveying parties are noting the depth, velocity, length and other peculiarities of all Mississippi river feeders.

Two Men Injured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The four-story frame building on the southeast corner of Doyer and Pell streets, caved in on the first floor, injuring two men. They were removed to the hospital.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Mr. J. P. Fitzgerald has filed application at Washington City for a patent on a stallion shield he recently invented.
